SUBJECT: Remarks by Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff

1. I attended a meeting in the office of the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, on Saturday, 9 December 1972. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Chairman stated, in one of the most sincere expressions of praise that I have heard, that he is tremendously pleased with the present Joint Staff and that he considers it the finest he has seen in his long association with the Joint Staff.

2. Request that you pass the Chairman's feelings on to all of our people. In the final analysis, it is they who make it possible for DIA to be responsive to the Chairman's day-to-day requirements as well as the special requirements which invariably come with short deadlines. I am personally happy to see the Chairman's recognition of the outstanding work of DIA people.
